

Sunflower Song

by Pyper Garff

Bending in the breezes
Swaying to and fro
Raindrops and bright sunshine
Helping them to grow

They nod. They wave,
Sunflowers on parade.

Petals of bright yellow Dark brown faces, too
Growing seeds for squirrels,
Birds, and me, and you

They nod. They wave,
Sunflowers on parade.

A sunflower is ...

as round as _____,

as fuzzy as _____,

as yellow as _____,
